SPIRITUAL READING & REFLECTION

FOOD THAT ENDURES

In this ineffable mystery of the Eucharist, Jesus Christ is the true nourishment of our souls. When we receive his Body and Blood, his life permeates ours down to the depths of our heart. We remain in him, and he remains in us, not just in a spiritual manner by grace but substantially and corporeally, to the point of becoming in a sort of way one body and blood with us. After Communion, the Savior furthermore resides in us by his virtue. He animates us, keeps us in the life of grace, fortifies us against the temptations of the devil and the violence of our passions, weakens the ardor of our concupiscence, enlightens our souls, increases the divine love in our hearts, consoles us in all our pains and afflictions, and finally gives a pledge of eternal bliss for our souls and a seed of the resurrection and glorious immortality for our bodies.

Oh my Jesus, give me the grace to perceive the blessings of the Bread of Angels descended from heaven for me! For as you deign to be my nourishment, prepare my heart as well, that I may receive you worthily and frequently. Give me a habitual disposition of living faith, firm hope, ardent charity, profound humility, complete confidence, and perfect gratitude. May the benefit of this food serve especially to animate me entirely in your Spirit, so that I may live no more except for you, by you, and through you. Amen.

BLESSED HYACINTHE-MARIE CORMIER Blessed Hyacinthe-Marie († 1916) served as master of the Order of Preachers from 1904 to 1916. June 2021 Magnificat

THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

- Mk 14:23-25
