SPIRITUAL READING & REFLECTION

FAITH IN THE MIDST OF AFFLICTION

To speak of faith often involves speaking of painful testing, yet it is precisely in such testing that Saint Paul sees the most convincing proclamation of the Gospel, for it is in weakness and suffering that we discover God's power which triumphs over our weakness and suffering.... Christians know that suffering cannot be eliminated, yet it can have meaning and become an act of love and entrustment into the hands of God who does not abandon us; in this way it can serve as a moment of growth in faith and love. By contemplating Christ's union with the Father even at the height of his sufferings on the cross, Christians learn to share in the same gaze of Jesus. Even death is illumined and can be experienced as the ultimate call to faith, the ultimate Go forth from your land (Gn 12:1), the ultimate "Come!" spoken by the Father, to whom we abandon ourselves in the confidence that he will keep us steadfast even in our final passage.

Nor does the light of faith make us forget the sufferings of this world. How many men and women of faith have found mediators of light in those who suffer! So it was with Saint Francis of Assisi and the leper, or with Mother Teresa of Calcutta and her poor.... In drawing near to the suffering, they were certainly not able to eliminate all their pain or to explain every evil. Faith is not a light which scatters all our darkness, but a lamp which guides our steps in the night and suffices for the journey.... In Christ, God himself wishes to share this path with us and to offer us his gaze so that we might see the light within it. Christ is the one who, having endured suffering, is the pioneer and perfecter of our faith (Heb 12:2). Suffering reminds us that faith's service to the common good is always one of hope—a hope which looks ever ahead in the knowledge that only from God, from the future which comes from the risen Jesus, can our society find solid and lasting foundations.... Even if our dwelling place here below is wasting away, we have an eternal dwelling place which God has already prepared in Christ, in his body.

POPE FRANCIS His Holiness Pope Francis was elected to the See of Saint Peter in 2013. June 2021 Magnificat

FAITH FORMATION

NEW ADULT FAITH FORMATION OPPORTUNITY

WE NEED YOUR INPUT

We have a new adult faith formation opportunity to offer—The Search: What is this journey in between the event we call “birth” and the one we call “death?” Is the journey taking you somewhere, or are you leading yourself to some kind of destination—a destination that could extend beyond your last breath? What do you want from your life during the in between? The questions are there. And, the answers are too.

The Search, on Formed.org, will be offered over a seven-week period—each session one hour+, in the social hall, led by Mary Hall. All you would need is a journal and a pen.

Here’s where we need your input: Are you interested in attending? If yes, would Thursday evenings at 6pm work for you or do you prefer Saturday afternoon at 2:15pm (quarter hour start to finish before confession in Church)? If interested, please sign the sign-up sheet on the black table in the vestibule this weekend (or email Theresa @ stjohnff@windstream.net). We hope to start this series in July. Any questions, contact Theresa in the parish office.
