SPIRITUAL READING & REFLECTION

*You shall not put the Lord,
your GOD,
to the test*

ON TEMPTATION

Even “Jesus’ life was a battle: he came to conquer evil, to conquer the prince of this world, to conquer the devil.” Jesus battled against the devil, who many times sought to tempt him. “During his earthly life, he experienced temptation and persecution.” Thus, Pope Francis observed, “we who want to follow Jesus and who by our baptism have taken to the Lord’s path, must be well aware of this truth: we too are tempted, we too are objects of the demon’s attacks,” for “the spirit of evil does not want us to become holy, it does not want us to bear witness to Christ, it does not want us to be disciples of Christ.”

The pope then asked: “What does the spirit of evil do to snatch us away from Jesus’ path through temptation?” He replied: “The devil’s temptations have three main characteristics, and we have to be aware of them in order not to fall into his trap.” First, “the temptation begins subtly but then it grows and increasingly grows stronger.” Then “it infects someone else; it spreads to another and seeks to take root in the community.” Finally, “to calm the soul, it seeks to justify itself.” In short: it “grows, spreads, and justifies itself.”...

“When we are tempted, we travel down this same road,” the pope warned. “We are tempted and it grows and spreads to others.” Just think of gossip: if we are “a little envious of one person or another,” we don’t contain our envy but sometimes share it with others by speaking badly about the person. This is how gossip “seeks to grow and spread to another person and yet another.”... This “is the way gossip works, and we have all been tempted to gossip.” Pope Francis then confided: “I too have been tempted to gossip! It is a daily temptation,” that “begins slowly, like a trickle of water.”

This is why we have to “be careful when we feel something in our heart that would lead to destroying people, destroying reputations, destroying our lives, leading us into worldliness and sin.” We must be “careful because if we do not stop ourselves in time, that trickle of water, when it grows and spreads, will become a tidal wave that leads us to justify ourselves.”...

“We are all tempted, because...our spiritual life, our Christian life, is a battle,” the pope said. This comes from the fact that “the devil does not want us to become holy, he does not want us to follow Jesus.” “Of course one of you will say: But Father, you are so old-fashioned, speaking about the devil in the 21st century!” To this Pope Francis replied: “Watch out, the devil exists! The devil exists even in the 21st century. And we must not be naive. We must learn from the Gospel how to battle against him.”

PRAYER KNEELERS ARE HERE THIS WEEK!

Deacons Brian Becker and Peter Ascik

Saturday, March 4 — Friday, March 10

The kneelers are on a "prayer pilgrimage" to the parishes in our diocese. St. John the Baptist is hosting two of the kneelers (for Brian Becker and Peter Ascik) Saturday, March 4 through Friday, March 10. They are located here in the church—temporarily replacing our usual kneelers in front of the votive offerings. You are invited to come and say a prayer on the kneelers and to share messages and prayer intentions in their journals. The kneelers and journals will be presented to them as gifts upon their ordination.

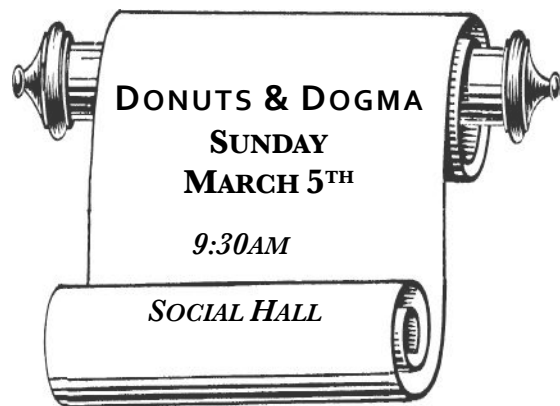

We thank Mary's Sons, an apostolate established by lay Catholics in our diocese, for providing the kneelers. Their mission is to promote prayer, support and love for our priests. They also support Eucharistic Adoration, 40 hours Devotions and Holy Hours for an increase in Vocations. Mary's Sons has purchased the personal kneelers for the five men who will soon be ordained priests in our diocese: Deacons Peter Ascik, Christian Cook, Matthew Bean, Brian Becker and Christopher Bond.
